

September 22, 2017

9:30_{am} - 4:00_{pm}

Goodfare Hall

Hwy 673

Field Session :
Leaning Ladder
Ranch, Hythe

Goodfare Hall
on HWY 673
west of Albright

To Register Call :

Jill Henry: 780-532-9727

OR

E-mail: jhenry@countygp.ab.ca

Lunch and refreshments included!

No charge to attend!

This is an outdoor workshop –please come dressed for the weather conditions.

Revegetating Riverbanks

Restore environmental services on your land

Purpose: To provide hands-on practical experience for anyone interested in conducting a Riparian Health Assessment; using willow cuttings & tree seedlings to mitigate erosion in riparian areas

Luke Wonneck MSc Agroforestry and Woodlot Extension Society '

Kerri O'Shaughnessy Cows and Fish

9:30am Registration & Coffee

10:00 am Morning Session - Goodfare Hall

- Presentation on techniques for riparian rehabilitation using willow cuttings & trees seedlings
- Concepts of Riparian Areas and Management

1:00 pm Afternoon Field Session- Leaning Ladder Ranch Hwy 672 South on RR 111

- Demonstration of tree seedling planting techniques
- Selection and harvesting different types of willow cuttings using hand tools
- Riparian Health Assessment : Field demo on site

